

The People that look for a weaving by Brianna

One day there was two girls and two boys they got to a grass land and when they past grass land they found a felid of flowers then they found a sunset and a beautiful weaving on the ground then they found a forest of snake skin and the snake skin turn into anacondas when they got though the forest they got to a hill of grapes and tress and apples, cherries and then they stepped in quike sand then they made it to a path of poisoned flowers they were so itchy they couldn't stop.

When they past the flowers they walked in a river of fire the weaving protected them from the fire then they became on the land that were looking for when they were happy it turn starry night time then they were so so so happy they didn't want to stop playing they wanted to play all night untill they got tired they fell asleep where they were playing.

The End

The Journey by Mario

One day 2 men and 2 women were on a journey to fand [find] a blikit [blanket] to betat [protect?] them.

The 4 pepul went throw a pach of flowers.

They came to a sun sat then thay fand a weving.

Than thay wut to a forist ful uf snake skin that ternd into anducundus.

Than thay came to a land of bares [berries].

Than thay came to a river.

Nakt [next] thay came to a pach of flowers that were posisnive.

Nax thay came to a blasin [blazing] fier the blikit hap [helped] the pepoele gut by.

Phinley [Finally] they cam to a nas plas [nice place] wer thay can slep 24-7 all day log.

See Derick's
Version Next
Page!!!!

The Journey by Melanie

One day on a hot summer day there was two men and two woman. They went on a journey to find weaving and there dream land. The first day they left they were at a field of flowers then they went on and came to a sunset and when they were there they found weaving. Then they past the sunset and entered a forest of snake skin but all of a sudden the snake skin became anacondas so then they ran and ran. Then when they past the forest they entered to a place were there are a lot of apples and strawberries. After they made it to quick sand but they acediently stepped in quick sand and the only way they got out was with rope. When they past that horrible problem it was night time so they went to sleep. The next day they woke up ate and left then they made it to a river so they swam across the river and when they made it across, there was poison flowers and IV [ivy]. After they past that they past fire but the only way they survived was that they had the weaving. When they past that they made it to a green grass land with beautiful flowers and when they past that they made it to there dreamland and at that land it was night time 24/7 but when they got there they went to sleep. The End

The Journey as told by Derick

Once upon a time there was 4 people in the woods and they found a lot of grass. There was a whole lot of flowers and a sunset and they found a weaving. Then they passed a sunset and there were a whole bunch of dead snake skins on the ground. There were a whole bunch of blueberries, grapes, apples, and strawberries.

After there was quicksand and there was a vine and when they found it they pulled themselves out of the quicksand. It was night time and they slept on rocks. They woke up and there was a river and they passed through it. Then there was poison ivy and then there was a big fire. They walked through it and they protected all four of themselves with the weaving.

Then there was a whole bunch of grass and flowers. In the night time, they found another weaving and then there were 2 weavings. When they went to sleep, a girl and a guy slept together on each weaving – four people all together [altogether], kissing underneath the stars and looking at the stars.

THE END

P.S. Later each boy and girl got married.