The lion spell by Larissa

Once upon a time there was a little girl Laurian who lived in Topicaham in that village anyone that stays up late after midnight will be taken into the lion's lair.

One night there was a little girl she was lost and could not find her way home. It was 3 till midnight she tries to camouflage herself into the trees but her yellow dress can attract the lion. Time ran out and she looked up and she yelled the lion was 100 feet tall he had a snake for a tail. He took her to his lair.

The lair was full of bones and blood. He threw the girl on the rock and he looked at Laurian and he saw her eyes full of tears. And he changed his mind the girl stayed with him for a few days.

One day it was time for her to go home she was 6 years old a drop of her tears fell on the lion's paw and the lion turned into her mom they went back to the village and lived happily ever the spell was broken. The end.
